

I strongly against any restriction on the marvellous servise provided by satellite radio. Local commercial radio serves my broadcasting needs very poorly -- it's all ads! Please do nothing to limit the services of the satellite alternative. The competition can only act to improve the sorry offerings of the established commercial stations and networks.